ZEPHYRHILLS, FLA. – Century Boats, a classic American boat company established in 1926 and based in Zephyrhills, Fla., today announced the addition of its newest dealer, Wolcott Marine, in Naples, Fla. Previously, Wolcott Marine served as a Century dealer from 1995 to 2009.

“Wolcott Marine makes a great fit as part of the Century Boats dealer network, and their location is ideal for meeting the needs of anglers and boating enthusiasts across southwest Florida’s Gulf Coast region,” said Bryan Lucius, president of Century Boats. “With decades of experience, Wolcott Marine built a great team and a strong customer base – and we’re excited to reintroduce Century Boats as part of their lineup.”

Wolcott Marine is once again an authorized Century Boats dealer with access to the entire Century model line including center consoles, walkarounds, expresses and the dual console, 24 Resorter. In addition to new-boat sales, Wolcott Marine offers a full on-water service department, consignment and brokerage services, and a complete onsite parts and service department.

“Wolcott Marine has a long history selling Century Boats – we’ve been selling them here since 1995,” said Mark Raudenbush, owner of Wolcott Marine. “The Century Boats and Wolcott Marine partnership is based upon the exceptionally high quality of Century Boats along with the highest level of customer care and service we provide at Wolcott Marine. We are delighted to continue that tradition.”
