

CROM LITTLEJOHN JOINS NORTHROP & JOHNSON AS COMMERCIAL DIRECTOR U.S.

With more than three decades of yachting industry expertise, Crom is ideally suited for his new role at Northrop & Johnson. He previously spent 15 years at Merle Wood & Associates, working in both the sales and charter departments. He then spent two years with Northrop & Johnson before moving to Camper & Nicholsons as Commercial Director. Crom has now rejoined Northrop & Johnson in his new role as Commercial Director U.S.

“I am elated to once again be part of the Northrop & Johnson team; I truly missed the camaraderie and family spirit of the company,” says Commercial Director U.S., Crom Littlejohn. “Additionally, it will be fantastic to return to a functional, modern, forward-thinking and progressive work environment with broker-friendly systems and ample marketing power at our disposal. I’m really excited with my decision to come home to Northrop & Johnson and couldn’t be happier to be a NoJo again. Northrop & Johnson is in an incredible position right now as the top brokerage in the world for 2017 — who doesn’t want to work with the best? It’s a dream come true to be working with the U.S. sales and charter teams to continue to elevate our presence not only in the United States, but also around the world.”

Crom served on the FYBA Board of Directors for more than a decade and spent two years as president. Crom was named the FYBA Sales Broker of the Year for 2015. He also was a board member in the AYCA.

“We are thrilled to welcome back Crom to Northrop & Johnson. He is the perfect fit for this role and everyone on the team is extremely excited to have him working with us once again,” says Northrop & Johnson COO Daniel Ziriakus. “Crom’s impressive industry experience and expertise will enable us to continue to strengthen the Northrop & Johnson brand. He is finally home again, and great things are ahead for us.”
