MINNEAPOLIS, MN. March 28, 2018 — CellTuck, LLC, a leading dealer website development and management provider, has increased its support of the Marine Retailers Association of the Americas, upgrading to the highest level of partnership.

“Over the years, here at CellTuck we’ve been so blessed. Increasing our partnership with the MRAA is our way of passing the blessings forward. Servicing Dealerships and Manufacturers alike is the core of who we are.” Angie Cellucci, Director at CellTuck.

The CellTuck team prides itself on creating a software system that enables dealers to feature their boats, engines, trailers and options packages in an easy-to-use platform. As its brand continues to grow throughout the marine sector, CellTuck remains consistent in providing a product that is focused on supporting today’s dealers.

“The successful partnership between MRAA and CellTuck continues grow due to CellTuck’s commitment to the association and our members,” says Allison Gruhn, MRAA Director of Business Development. “Their increased support for the MRAA and the marine industry, as a whole, provides stability for the future of boat dealers and the industry.”

CellTuck is part of a roster of boat manufacturers, vendors and suppliers that have chosen to support the dealer community through partnership with the MRAA.
