COAST GUARD FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES TRIBUTE TO THE COAST GUARD IN OUR NATION'S CAPITAL

13th Annual Event to Take Place on June 5th at the National Building Museum

Stonington, Conn. – The Coast Guard Foundation, a non-profit organization committed to the education and welfare of all Coast Guard members and their families, announced today that its 14th Annual Tribute to the United States Coast Guard in Our Nation's Capital will take place on Tuesday, June 5, 2018 at the National Building Museum, Washington, D.C.

The theme for this year's event is "Heroes of the Storm." The event will be dedicated to recognizing Coast Guard heroism during 2017 Hurricane rescue, response and relief efforts, as well as recognizing the Chief Petty Officers Association (CPOA). Vice Admiral Karl L. Schultz, the current nominee to become the 26th Commandant of the Coast Guard will deliver keynote remarks. Frank and Carly Fiorina, philanthropists, will serve as honorary dinner chairpeople.

The event will be hosted by John Roberts, the chief White House correspondent for FOX News Channel and Kyra Phillips, ABC correspondent.

The Coast Guard Foundation's Tribute to the United States Coast Guard in Our Nation's Capital will be held on Tuesday, June 5, 2018 at the National Building Museum, 440 G Street NW, Washington, D.C. A cocktail reception will begin at 6:30 p.m. with dinner and program following at 7:30 p.m.
