FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
August 1, 2018

SEAVIEW managers buy the company and set up a new manufacturing facility.

Liberty Lake, Washington U.S.A.
SEAVIEW a leading manufacturer of marine mounting solutions separates from PYI and forms an independent company.

To accommodate increased demand, long time SEAVIEW managers Jason Romesburg, Ian Smith and Jason Abrahamsen have formed a new company to manufacture and distribute SEAVIEW products. Dealers and end users can expect the same quality products and customer service that they received at PYI since the new owners have been the backbone of SEAVIEW for 16 years. This team has a combined 50+ years in the marine industry and is looking forward to expanding the SEAVIEW line and increasing production in the new larger facility in Eastern Washington.

"We are excited about our new roles with SEAVIEW and look forward to developing new opportunities for growth well into the future."

Jason Romesburg, President, SEAVIEW
