COATNEY SALES ADDS REP TO MID-SOUTH REGION

Aaron Johns has joined Fremont, Indiana-based Coatney Sales Inc. as a sales representative for Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. The independent manufacturer rep group specializes in OEM and aftermarket marine, RV, trailer, specialty vehicle, power sports and sporting goods.

With a strong background in sales and engineering, and a bachelor's degree in agricultural business from Missouri State University, Johns is an ideal match for Coatney Sales. Most recently, he was regional sales manager for Moeller Marine. Prior, he worked for Johnston Industrial Supply and North American Composites. Active in his community, he serves on his local school board and volunteers with Ozark Care to Learn.

"We're pleased that Aaron has joined us," said company president Craig Coatney. "He brings a wealth of experience and insight to our team, and will be a valued asset to our customers and vendors." Johns' appointment supports Coatney Sales' strategic growth direction in the mid-south region.

Coatney Sales is known throughout the industries it serves for the relationships it builds with its vendors. It partners with them to grow their businesses and customer bases. With a proven track record of professionalism, it has an enviable sales performance history.
