

GALEON YACHTS IS MAKING ITS WAY TO THE FORT LAUDERDALE INTERNATIONAL BOAT SHOW

CLEARWATER, FL (October 25, 2017) – Galeon Yachts, the cutting-edge brand that broke the mold with side fold revolution, is excited to unveil their newest models to North America at the Fort Lauderdale International Boat Show, November 1 - 5. Step aboard the five new models including the 460 Fly, 510 Sky, 405 HTS, 430 HTC, and 485 HTS.

Designed to Lead, not follow, and never satisfied with the status quo, Galeon Yachts continues to create innovative features like expandable balconies and disappearing doors while setting design trends and introducing new models. “Innovation and old world European artisanship are blended with perfection as the Galeon line of hand-crafted yachts has evolved”, commented Bob Burke, Galeon Brand Manager.

Every great project has a beginning – it starts with a concept, a bold idea to create something unique and unforgettable. Right from the concept stages, Galeon works closely with their designers and engineers to meld form and function into an amazing luxury experience. To build a quality product, they use only the finest components and latest technology available. To stay ahead of the competition, Galeon pushes the boundaries of design, adding fresh new ideas and implementing daring solutions. Galeon yachts are constantly being improved and enhanced because they realize that even the smallest details will affect the final product. From start to finish, the whole production process is closely monitored to meet strict quality and safety standards.
