Houston Summer Boat Show Coming to NRG Center June 12-16

Boating Season Kicks Off with Southeast Texas' Largest Summer Boat Show Featuring Over 500 Boats in One Place Plus Family Activities

HOUSTON (May 17, 2019) – The Houston Summer Boat Show is coming to NRG Center June 12-16 for a celebration of all things boating, fishing and watersports – just in time to kick off the summer boating season!

As Southeast Texas' largest summer boat show, this five-day event will feature over 500 boats, campers and personal watercraft, offering access to scores of industry experts and family-friendly activities plus special deals and shopping opportunities for boats, boating electronics, gear, accessories, outdoor furniture, vacation getaways, clothing and more.

“As the Houston summer approaches, one of the best ways to beat the heat is to get out on the water,” Boat Show President Ken Lovell said. “Houston is a big market for boating with about 200 lakes across Texas plus the Gulf of Mexico located just 50 miles south. If you’ve ever wanted to own a boat or just learn more about boating, this show is a great place to start.”

In addition to offering nine acres of exhibits and access to some of the biggest names in boating, the Houston Summer Boat Show is a family-friendly event complete with a Kids Zone where youngsters can bungee jump, play on inflatable slides and more. At Fish-O-Rama, the kids can try to catch a rainbow trout while adults can watch fishing demonstrations at the 18-wheeler-sized, 4,000-gallon Bass Tub filled with live bass.
