

Star of Bravo's Below Deck Tahiti to Appear at Jacksonville In-Water Boat Show

Rhylee Gerber will appear at the show on Saturday & Sunday

Jacksonville, FL, April 4, 2019 – Rhylee Gerber, a deckhand on the popular Bravo TV show Below Deck Tahiti, will be appearing at the Jacksonville In-Water Boat Show. Gerber will be at the show on Saturday, April 6 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and from Sunday, April 7 from 12 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Gerber appeared in Season 6 of the hit Bravo show. She has spent the last several years working aboard charter fishing vessels in her home state of Alaska. Her season on Below Deck was her first voyage into the white glove world of yachting.

“My favorite thing about being on the show was being in Tahiti,” said Gerber. “I got to experience another side of boating that I was not accustomed to. It is vastly different than fishing.”

Described as a force to be reckoned with, Gerber quickly moved up in her career and became a captain in 2015. Confident in her skills on deck and passionate for travel, Gerber was eager to learn a new trade when she joined the show.

Gerber, originally from Alaska, has ties to the First Coast. She moved across the country in the 1990s with her mother and stepfather and went to high school in Fernandina Beach where her parents owned a bed and breakfast. She attended Flagler College in St. Augustine and had a restaurant in Ortega, which she owned with her former fiancé.

While on the First Coast, Gerber made friends within the local fishing community and got to know several of the fishing hot spots. Gerber said she has a soft spot in her heart for the area and considers it her second home.

The Jacksonville In-Water Boat Show, presented by Yamaha, brings boats of all shapes and sizes to Metropolitan Park and Marina from Friday, April 5 until Sunday, April 7. The show, produced by JBM & Associates, is a showcase of more than 50 different boat brands from more than 20 local boat dealers. Tickets range from $5 to $10 and can be purchased at jacksonvilleinwaterboatshow.com or at the door.
