TO: The Marquis Yachts Family

SUBJECT: Irwin Jacobs

It is with a heavy heart and great sadness that I share with you the passing of Irwin Jacobs and his wife on Wednesday, April 10th.

We will all certainly miss him. He was an innovator, a fighter, a prognosticator, a friend. He had a true and deep passion for the boating industry. It really was a love to him, as it is for all of us. Irwin has owned many business, in many different categories, but boating was one category that he held close to his heart.

As for Marquis Yachts, it is business as usual! As more information becomes available and able to be shared, I will. I understand that all of you will have questions, so please allow us time to gather the factual information and it will be shared with you as quickly as possible.

In the meantime, please take a moment to join with us in the joys and memories of our lost friend and leader. Keep him and his family in your thoughts and prayers.

For respect to the Jacobs family, please grieve with them while respecting their space.

Best regards,
