

NEWS RELEASE

Fairline Yachts announces expansion with new Oslo office

Luxury British boatbuilder, Fairline Yachts, announces the expansion of its dealer network in Norway with a new sales office for the Oslo area.

Nautic Norway has been the exclusive dealer for Fairline Yachts for the past four years and in response to recent successes, the business has expanded its offering by adding an additional premises close the country's capital. The expansion means Nautic Norway is able to meet with more customers and showcase a greater range of Fairline models.

Dennis Wollertsen from Nautic Norway comments, "We are excited to be expanding our presence and we look forward to the new opportunities this will bring to us and to Fairline. We have been working with Fairline since 2016 and it has proven to be one of the most desired motorboat brands in Norway. We are confident our new location will entice even more customers to experience Fairline and we look forward to our new chapter.”

Peter McNulty, Chief Operating Officer at Fairline Yachts, adds, “The new location provides a large office in a beautiful marina setting for our award-winning yachts to be seen and trialed. It is an exciting time for both Fairline and Nautic Norway and we look forward to sharing our exceptional boats and unrivalled craftsmanship with even more customers in the region.”

The new office address for Nautic Norway is: Leangbukta 36, 1392 Vette, Norway.

For more information about Nautic Norway and to get in touch, please visit the website here: www.nauticanorway.no