

Hi everyone! This is the AskAnnie Podcast horse girl reviews on products you use!

We want to know more about you, our listeners! Check out the show notes for a quick listener survey!

Here it is, the second part of my holiday gift guide, featuring products I've reviewed over the past year! In Episode 51, I shared products that would be perfect gifts for your horse and as promised, this week is all about gifts that you, or the equestrian in your life, can enjoy! Let's dive into past episodes to learn more!

First, Episode 28, all the way back in January, featured my go-to riding boots, the Heritage Breeze Lace Paddock Boot by Ariat. These boots sport multiple design features to ensure comfort in and out of the saddle. Plus, tune in to hear a unique way that I tested the washable feature of these boots.

Next, let's take a look at Episode 32 in which I reviewed the WEATHERBEETA Therapy-Tec Dog Bed and Dog Coat. These two products not only helped my pup recover after a hard day's work, but also looked stylish and sleek in my home.

The Trailer Aid I reviewed in Episode 40 is next up on the gift guide. As I explained in the episode, this is a product that I always have on hand, but hope to never have to use. In my review of the Trailer Aid, I found how user friendly this tire changing tool is. Listen to hear about the unique situation we found ourselves in when we finally needed to use it.

Episode 43 features the next product on this gift guide, the SmartCanine™ Skin & Coat Soft Chews. This product was simple to order and passed my picky pup's taste test.

Next up are four products that I reviewed from YETI; the Rambler® 10 oz. Tumbler with MagSlider™ Lid and Roadie® 24 Hard Cooler with Roadie 24 Seat Cushion. When I reviewed these four products, all featured in Episode 45, I found how seamlessly they fit into my equestrian life with their use of advanced technology to ensure elite function yet stress-free care.

Last on my equestrian gift guide is the YETI Fully-Loaded Bucket featured in Episode 46. The YETI Fully-Loaded Bucket is comprised of four unique products:

- LoadOut® 5-Gallon Bucket
- LoadOut Lid
- LoadOut Utility Gear Belt
- LoadOut Caddy

These products all work together to form a multipurpose, durable, and compact tool.

Tune into each episode for more information on all of these products and to learn where to find them!

Next up, I have a special treat. I was fortunate to interview four individuals from across the horse product spectrum to learn more about their products and the logistics behind producing them. These four episodes are packed with information about the horse products we may use everyday!

Many equestrians, including me, grew up using the original Mane 'n Tail by Straight Arrow; it has been a staple in the equestrian industry since its launch in 1970. In Episode 34, I visited with owner and president of Straight Arrow, Devon B. Katzev, who now runs the family business that his parents started.

In Episode 41 I had the opportunity to interview Russell Mueller, the Equine Product Line Manager with Cargill Animal Nutrition in Episode 41. In this conversation, Russell gives an inside look into the release of Nutrena® Empower® Digestive Balance.

Episode 49 features my conversation with Hemp Horse Gold's Katie McNeal. We discuss the driving force, and sweet story, behind starting Hemp Horse Gold, the benefits of using CBD products in horses, and what makes this product unique.

Most recently, I spoke with Tribute Equine Nutrition's Dr. Nicole Rambo on Episode 50. We discuss her journey to Tribute Equine Nutrition, as well as the new product release of Wholesome Blends. Dr. Rambo gives an inside look at what went into launching this feed and why it's a valuable resource to horse owners.

There you have it! Gift ideas for the equestrian in your life, plus some informative listening to take you through the holidays. Again, for more information on the products and individuals I interviewed, please tune into each individual episode. The AskAnnie Podcast will be taking a holiday break over the month of January and come back in full force with season 2 in February. I hope you all have a wonderful holiday season and a happy new year!
