

Chesapeake Whalertowne announces the acquisition of Lippincott Marina

Grasonville, Md / November 9, 2021 /PRNewswire/ - Chesapeake Whalertowne, a leader among Boston Whaler boat dealers nationwide; has announced the acquisition Lippincott Marine in Grasonville, Maryland. The acquisition is in line with the company's strategy to diversify revenue streams and increase the company's footprint amid the Chesapeake Bay's growing boating community.

The marina is a full-service facility offering slips and yacht sales. Situated on 12 acres on the lee side of Kent Narrows in a protected harbor the marina features a swimming pool, picnic area, and grills which compliment the 200 slips that can accommodate vessels up to 70'. "This is an exciting milestone for our business, employees, and family" said Rick Boulay Jr, General Manager of Chesapeake Whalertowne "The acquisition of Lippincott Marine is the logical next step in growing our business and supporting our customer base which represents one of the strongest here on the Chesapeake Bay."

Chesapeake Whalertowne has plans for several capital improvements and will be renaming the facility Cedar Point Marina in November 2021

About Chesapeake Whalertowne

Chesapeake Whalertowne is a 4th generation family owned and operated Boston Whaler dealer with locations in Annapolis and Grasonville, Maryland. The company is one of the largest independently owned and operated Boston Whaler dealers in the world. In addition to Boston Whaler boat sales Chesapeake Whalertowne offers a full array of marine services including outboard marine service, electronics installation, fiberglass repair and custom installations.

For more information visit: www.whalertowne.com

Contact: Rick Boulay Jr, Chesapeake Whalertowne