MARINEMAX HIRES SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF PEOPLE STRATEGY

CLEARWATER, FL (May 9, 2022) – MarineMax is the largest boat and yacht retailer in the world, with unparalleled resources for boaters. But behind the curtain is a team of people handpicked to innovate and advance the industry for the greater good.

Brett McGill, MarineMax CEO and President, comments, "I am pleased to welcome Beth Garland to the MarineMax family, as the Senior Vice President of People Strategy. Beth's 25+ years of experience in human resources and operations will help us as we continue to grow our organization globally. Her extensive experience will bring new ideas, and her passion for building a strong team and company culture aligns perfectly with our mission and values."

MarineMax has a long-term focus on team members, as demonstrated by its rigorous hiring process, innovative executive and managerial coaching, and succession planning. Beth's strong strategic skills will elevate and advance initiatives to enhance team member engagement, strengthen professional development opportunities, expand benefits and retain and grow the team.

Beth has extensive management and leadership capabilities with a proven track record of cross-functional team building to create positive results. She is also a frequent public speaker and has been promoted from Volunteer Leadership Board of Directors of the American Cancer Society to the Southwest Florida Area Board of Directors for the American Cancer Society. Beth and her husband, Taylor, reside in Tampa with their 10-year-old twins. They volunteer at the children's school and spend family time on or near the water.
