

Barbour Corp. Names Matt Pearson CEO & President

Barbour Corporation, the parent company of Barbour Plastics and Barbour Welting, has named Matt Pearson as its new CEO & President. Matt Pearson is taking over as CEO & President from his uncle, Richard Hynes, who has recently retired after 55 years with the company. Matt began working at Barbour Corporation during his college breaks doing various jobs in the factory. Since graduating in 2004, he has worked full time in sales, purchasing, and management.

Matt was most recently the General Manager of Barbour Corporation. Michael Casey, President of the Barbour Plastics division, has worked closely with Matt over the past 20 years stated: "he is extremely capable at the corporate level, and understands the importance of producing quality products for our customers."

Barbour Corporation is a private, family-owned company established in 1892 that has a long history of supplying quality leather and plastic products to the various industries, such as footwear, marine, construction, and commercial refrigeration.
